Announcements

21 Days of Prayer and Fasting: Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, and Supplication.

Today in the bulletin you'll find a listing of all the locations where the 21 Day's of Prayer will take place.

Beginning January 6th through the 26th, we will be in prayer and fasting as part of a consortium of churches in the community and around the world. First Baptist will be hosting some of the community churches on the 10th and the 21st of January. A calendar of prayer topics is available at the Welcome Center that can guide you over this period of 21 days. Feel free to use the scriptures it provides and topics descriptions to help you focus your time spent in prayer.

21 DAYS OF PRAYER & FASTING

Use the following calendar as a guide over this period of 21 days. Feel free to use the scriptures provided and topics to help you focus your time spent in prayer.

Meditate on God's Word, be active in your intercessory prayer, journal them, and if needed, do whatever you need to do to have your mind engaged during these times of prayer. On the back you will find more information in detail about the purpose and nature of prayer and fasting. The A.C.T.S. model of prayer is also provided at the bottom as an additional tool to help guide your time in prayer.
