Announcements and Upcoming Events

The Love Offering is being collected today for Cross Road Christian Woman's Recovery Center. They are trying to raise funds for a new van. Cross Road is a 4-month residential facility that offers a Christ-centered, Bible-based program to help women struggling with addiction. FBC has been a long time supporter of this ministry. The program is free of charge to its recipients and completely funded through donations, grants, and community support.

Beginning March 2nd through April 6th the Worship Board would like to honor all mothers for Mother's Day in a special way. We will be collecting photos of your mother's (parents) for video creation from the still images -- creating a special video of the photos. Please bring a hard copy of your mom's picture to the church office (or submit mom's photo electronically formatted as a jpg, png, or pdf) with your mother's name and all related children who are FBC members/regular attenders. Hard copy photos will be safely uploaded until the April 6th cut off date and returned to you by the following Sunday. The video can be viewed on May 11th prior the church service at the Deacon's Breakfast and on the lobby monitors before the worship prelude. Send electronic copies to first-baptistrichmond.org Subject: Photos for Mother's Day. We wish to recognize our mothers for all that they have meant to us with prayer and thanksgiving.

Bible Study: Every Tuesday at 3:00 and 7:00 at the Power's House. All are welcome.
